

48-1000
the truth is hidden

the truth is often hidden behind a single tear
anger the expression
when there's no room for fear false reactions vying with reality so near confusing world contending obscuring what is clear

when we filter through a veil emotional responses
rationality has failed
forgetting that as humans reason is the holy grail beautiful existence
if awareness can prevail

when society commands
we follow in the footsteps even though we understand that the narrative is tainted obfuscation it demands heresy accused if we transgress the authors' plans

do you know
or do you feel
what is false
what is real
when question not accept as truth
what we're taught
