Their stories

I'm not all that interested in their stories
I can pretend if you want me to
I can act as though their tales leave me feeling bliss and blue
But to be true
I'm not all that interested in their stories
In fact
I'm not all that interested in mine
I use them to gain footing and to seem cool
But deep down i know i'm playing the fool
I'm just a tool
For not only
Do i not care about their stories
In fact
I don't care about them
Deep down
Deep down where i hide
I must confide
I'm not all that interested in their stories
Anymore
No more keeping score
Time to head for the door
No good, no bad
Just time to go
For
I'm not all that interested
In their stories
