

944-1000
This day and age

In this day and age
Science is bashed
While those preaching falsehood
Seem to hoard all the cash
In this day and age
Everything is for sale
Sell it on ebay
The checks in the mail
In this day and age
Lying's the norm
Our species may not
Weather this storm
In this day and age
Homeless numbers are growing
While the billionaires wallets
Keep overflowing
In this day and age
Anger and rage
Are mistaken by many
For something more sage
In this day and age
The planet is burning
And the humans who trashed it
Don't seem to be learning
That
This may be the end
Of Days and of ages
Amazing how we
Don't see the cages
We've created
