Time does not

Here are the things times does not
Though many will tell you this is true
Time does not heal all wounds
Understood by far too few

Time does not etch away the mountain ranges shadows cast
For time is measured in a life
And mountain peaks thus ever last

Time does not erase a deed
That known or not did change a heart
For actions thus live on forever
And perhaps then we have done our part

And time does not For time is not
A measure of The coming hour
For how can one Place limit worth
On the crashing wave Or blooming flower

Take your time
And take mine
Take mine too
