

45-1000
time worked fine

when all it had to heal
was lust gone bad
love unreal

time worked fine
when all it had to cure
was another lost job
all a blur

when all it had to fix
was a drunk man's need
to find another fix

when all it had to do
was remind me the sky
always shines blue

but time doesn't work
when i think about my child precious one
the gods upon whom smiled
but broken too
apart and so alone
what will happen
when he a man is grown
will he know
a lover's hot embrace
will he feel
the kiss upon his face
time may work
those who understand but time will not
for strangers in this land
