Times two

Someone once said to me, I love you times two
I was kinda hoping that it was you
Was it you?

Someone once looked at me with tender eyes
I was wondering if she still cries
Does she cry?

Someone once held me and i thought it was real
I was praying that love she could feel
Was it that?

I love you times two
I'll never love you less
I met another guy
I love him I confess
He holds me as you do
He makes me feel alive
I love you times two
I need him to survive

Someone once said to me, I love you times two
I know now it wasn't you
That was something i made up in my head
In my head
