

1000-1000
Today and til the end of time

How do i put into words the way that i feel
How can i describe

It's impossible
It's just not possible

So i say

Today
And til the end of time
I am yours
Today
And til the end of time
I share my days and nights, my soul, with you

I want to travel the world by your side
Love those around us with hearts open wide
Hold you when times become tough
Perhaps two together in love is enough
I want to sing my songs just for you
Dance under skies every shade of blue
And share the dawn as each new day unfolds
Embracing the journey we will joyous grow old

And so
Today and til the end of time
I am your man your lover your friend
Through every beginning and until every end
And on bended knee my hand i extend and tell you
Today and til the end of time
I love you
I love you
I love you
