Tomorrows song

Someone said today's a day about which to write a song
They've got it wrong
They've got i all wrong
Today's a day to pull the covers over my head
I'll write a song about tomorrow instead

Tomorrow's song
It won't be long
When all alive in my heart
From me are no longer apart
And across the room i spy jane
Whose smile part the sheets of rain

Someone said today's a day to pen a tune
It's way too soon
It's way too soon
Today's the day i'll drink the coffee black
And tomorrow i will come back

Tomorrow's tune
All roses bloom
Sun on my face
All things in their place
And on a stroll with jill so fair
Dancing on without a care

Someone said today's a day to sing aloud
Under a cloud
A thundercloud
Today's the day i will keep on trying
Though heavy heart, i would be lying

Today's song
Today's tune
Today i'll sing
Today i'll croon
About a day
About a sorrow
And hopeful i
For tomorrow
