Too much, way too much

Sometimes this whole thing is too much

Way too much

Sometimes i just want to get in my car

Drive and drive so far

To some such place

Where the only person i have to take care of

Is me

Where all of the love that i feel

Is free

And where i can stand on the edge of the field

And decree

My liberty

And sometimes this whole thing is too much

Way too much

Way too much
