Turkey jerky

Why didn't anyone ever tell me
Before i had my child
That soon would come the days
Passing in a guilt brown haze
A shame laden psycho maze
It's like turkey jerky
Perhaps the greatest food of all
Yet no one ever made the call to me
And said
This stuff is so great
Just like
No one ever made the call to me and said
Parenting will leave you breathless
