

673-1000
Up in the air

What does that mean, up in the air
It doesn't mean i do not care
It doesn't mean i'm floating away
Though sometimes i'm ready for the end of today

What can i say, up in the air
I'm struggling to find the right words when i share
I'm struggling to keep my feet fast on the ground
To weep when i need to but to not make a sound

When will i not be up in the air
Is drifting and wandering really all that rare
I hold on so tightly, for fear when i let go
That away you will drift, and then i won't know

You

As you go, up in the air
Up and away
Up in the air
But i want you to stay

I tether your memory like a balloon on a string
I pull you back in when the warm winds of spring
Threaten to take you up up in the air
And sometimes you know it's this hurt i can't bear

Do any of you understand
This feeling i feel
I'm afraid if you land
It will make this all real
And so i will keep you
Up in the air
Never quite here
But surely somewhere
