Wait

Wait

Take a breath

Look all around you

What do you see

Can you hold this moment

In a glass jar like a dream captured, wait

Wait

Breathe it in

Love all around you

What do you feel

Can you hold this moment

In a heart ever hoping pried wide open, wait

Wait

Silence now

We're all around you

What do you know

Can you hold this moment

As a believer holds all things holy in devotion, wait

Wait

Now take a step

Listen to the songs

What do you hear

Can you hold this moment

In a soul that's lived ten thousand lives

So go now, go now

wait
