

906-1000

We don't talk about that

Shhh

Quiet

We don't talk about that

We don't want to ruffle feathers

We don't want to rankle whether

Or not

It's time to talk

It's time to say

We do talk about this

We don't turn away

And when you look me in the eye and tell me

To keep this under wraps

To make sure it's a secret ours

Festering by the hours

I say

This is my voice

This is my choice

Today i choose

Today i choose

Today i choose
