Well you see

Well you see
We wonder if The answer is simple and clear but maybe
It's far more simple than we fear
Think not
Why try to exert all the control
Jump in
It's actually fear that exacts a toll
Open heart
Willing to feel the full range of things
And discover
All of the joy and sorrow this brings
Well you see
That's what it means to be alive
It's in the depths
That our heart and soul do thrive
Well you see
The answer in fact is just take the leap
And then
All life's love is yours to keep
