We're turning

We're turning
Into what i am not sure
We're lying
Dishonesty a regal cure
We're buying
Shopping makes us feel whole
We're trying
Not to feel sadness at all

We're turning
Into a nation we ridicule
Ain't it funny
We're the one's who play the fool
Our leader
Just another demagogue
We'll awaken
Someday from this destructive fog

We're turning
Into that which we despise
Avarice
That is the culprit i surmise
We're losing
All the righteousness we earned
No different
When will we ever learn

Turning
