What do you think we're here for

What do you think we're here for
Is there a reason or is it just luck
Sometimes i feel like there are so many blessings
Sometimes i just say oh what the fuck
People make meaning
Meaning feels good
But would you be ok if i passed
If the meaning i've made was not meant to last
All that long
Or be that strong
Maybe we're just here to breath
Wouldnt that be a trip huh
