Whats important whats not

This one is easy
Though I still think about it a lot
Whats important easy
Deep down we all know whats not
Whats important
Two hearts beating as one being held when we have the impulse to run
Weeping when its time for tears
Not feel ashamed of our fears
Loving so deeply that we cry
Not always venturing to figure out why
Reaching out and being kind
Nurturing heart and soul and mind
Notice how none of these have an end
There's no result or card to score
It's just living as if this day's our last
And thanking god for just one more
Whats important
Love suffice
It's just so simple
And so nice
Whats important
love alone
Open your heart
And you'll be shone
Whats important
