Whats the mystery

We see it all the time
Anger the elixir and violence the crime
We wonder why we kill
When most of seem to think of war we've had our fill

But truth always will out
And of the following i surely have no doubt
It's because we won't be sad
That we elect leaders who are stark raving fucking mad

There is no mystery
Just look at history
There is no mystery
Just look at history

Sorrow saves
Grief connects
Compassion reigns
When we reject
Angers pull
Hypnotic rage
The saddest ones
Are truly sage
