Where the hell have i been

Just look
At where the hell i have been
Or how many hells ive chosen to traverse
And worse
Of course i know that
I'm no different from the next guy
And I know why
I know why
And still
Look at where the hell i have been
And often still go
Sometimes for show
But Mostly not
And while some of the feelings i forgot
I am here to tell you
To tell
The i still often live in hell
My own
Built by me
Quite well
And all the hells i have seen
And just look at
Where the hell i have been
And yes
I know you have been there too
This is nothing new
This is nothing new
But believe me when i tell you
True
Look at where the hell i have been
