Who wouldnt mind

Who wouldnt mind living like they do
The ones with all the money who do whatever they want to
The ones who sail around the world on yachts with rented crews
The ones who worry not about their addiction to booze

Who wouldnt mind having all that cash
Not living hand to mouth in fear of giving up our stash
Unable to pay for dinner at the local burger stand
No matter how well in advance you have your budget planned

I would mind
I am fine
I don't need
Despite my greed
I would mind
I dont want to live like that
I'd rather be a pauper
Than another fancy cat
