

112-1000
And why can't you?

I can get there when we planned
A time we did create
I don't need to call let you know
That I'll be late
It leaves me feeling hollow
Leaves me feeling you don't care
When alone i quiet pine
You think i'm not aware?

I know we have our nature
And part of yours getting lost
Lost in time and space and thus
Your energies exhaust
And i also understand that
When you leave me feeling rotten
It's not that you don't love me
It's just that you've forgotten

Who is right and who is wrong
It really doesn't matter
Placing blame is simply
Another useless form of chatter
But dammit i am always
Doing what I'm supposed to do
I honor my commitments and
I wonder, why can't you?
