Why, do you need me

It's time for me to go
I've done my part and taken care
There's little more to show
The tears and years we did share
The road calls me now
So with a wave, well thee fare
And it's time to go
It's time for me to go

It's time for me to go
I'm staring at the great beyond
Which way will i flow
Where will i 'waken in the dawn
The road calls me now
So with a kiss, i must move on
And it's time for me to
It's time for me to go

You're asking me to stay
You seem to need me everyday
You're asking me to stay
And i say

Why, do you need me?
Do you need my comfort and my arms
Do you feel that with me
You can never come to harm
It's all an illusion
The path you tread is all your own and it's time for me to go
