Why people say thank you

People say thank you
Thank you and please
Bless you when you sneeze
People say thank you
I guess it's polite
Keeping things light
Lightness
Thank you
But who do i thank
Is it god
Who do i thank
And for what
For holding the door
For settling the score
For lighting my way
Or just to say
Thank you
