Wilderness

It's all wilderness
Everywhere we go
Every step we take
We make things we know
Where we're heading
what we're doing
Why or how then or now
But we don't
We don't
It's all wilderness
All untrodden paths
It's a best guess
It's a leap of faith
Sometimes borne of wrath
At times love
Perhaps guided
By the mysterious above
But don't ever think
You truly understand
For every demand
That we make
Is subject to the will
Of nature
Of something greater
It's all wilderness
So be no afraid
And wade
Wade in deep
You have one life to keep
One promise
Be brave
And go forth
Into
The wilderness
