Will we

Will we rock rock you
Its a funny question i admit
But other will we's
Are not funny, not one bit
Will we move away from truth
Find salvation in our lies
Somehow able to ignore
The ones we love and their cries
Will we let our current leaders
Bully us into caring not
If our world we soon destroy
Despite the morals we are taught
Will we close our eyes and offer
Oh so empty thoughts and prayers
Instead turning over power
To avarice, to death purveyors
Will we watch as our sisters
Break the law to save their lives
Do we even give a shit
About our daughter, about our wives
And will we have the courage
To ask the questions and answers demand
Or instead bow our heads like sheep
And follow the most dastardly command
Will we
Will you
