

108-1000
Wouldn't it be funny

Wouldn't it be funny
If all baptist preachers
Were discovered to be
Alien creatures
Arrived here from planets
We don't know about
Comic relief
Found in the devout
Pure entertainment
Beamed back to their home
Like all in the family
Or heads with a cone

Wouldn't it be funny
If gene roddenberry
Was sent from the future
Interplanetary
All of us thinking
The vulcans aren't real
Just wait a few centuries
With laughter we'll peel
When humans discover
That ole captain kirk
Exists in the flesh
And still is a jerk

Wouldn't it be funny
If 1000 songs later
I still make some dollars
By being a waiter
Carrying filets
A song in my head
Would you like butter
Or oil with your bread
No worries it's all
In the end about money
I was just thinking
Wouldn't it be funny
