Wow

Sometimes i listen to the radio and exclaim an audible wow
Self-righteous people ranting on and on as if i care somehow
Folks whose rich performances win an academy award
Folks so disingenuous and transparent i am floored

The ongoing election is a study in our gullibility
Ted Cruz waxes eloquent and people listen so intently
Why don't we all realize that these men are oh so insincere
Honest answers is the only thing that they really fear

Wow

Holy cow

You believe

They deceive

They preach

They beseech

You bow

Wow

The Truth is i don't really care that politicians lie
The part that makes me crazy is that the rest of us comply
We listen to them dissemble and we nod like little sheep
No wonder we are wading in some shit that's mighty deep
