

203-1000
Ya that's it

Ya that's it, i've had enough
I surrender i give up
You think You've won, that the day is yours
You see me i'm on all fours

that's it, i'm beaten down
Do you see my constant frown?
I know i hide it very well
Perhaps it's difficult to tell

But if you knew me, if you cared
If in honesty you dared You'd see a man you love and hate i 'm sure it is a heavy weight

But you choose to pretend and pose
Say empty words, everyone knows
You may have loved me in abstract
But never liked me, that's a fact

I never gave you what you craved
Control and admiration waived
And now you bitterness take hold
Dark and palpable behold

But i am done, it's your life now
I will extricate somehow
And with a smile i say i quit
Sorry but ya that's it
