

YA YA YA

I see you charged another Pinot on our mastercard (G, D)
Our savings are depleted, how can you disregard (C, G)
Everything I say to you as if you do not care (G, D)
There you go again with your, ya ya ya (C, D) ya ya ya, what's the big deal ya ya ya, well i know how you feel ya ya ya, you bug me every day ya ya ya would you please just go away

I cannot talk about nutrition for even one more sec eating only vegetables is making me a wreck i'm going to the in and out for some yummy fare and if you rolls your eyes at me, you'll hear ya ya ya

Your grasp on reality is such a goddamn joke
Even though I cannot breath i'm dying for a smoke i'm doing my level best to ignore your angry stare
As for your vapid lectures, whatever, ya ya ya
