You can't love

You may keep me here forever
But we will always be apart
You may hold me in your arms
But not truly in your heart
You are on a mission
Your goal is to succeed
I am just a man
My hope is that i'll bleed
You can patch me up
You can make you young
But you cannot make me whole
Because
You can't love
You do not understand
You can't love
You can never hold my hand
You can't love
A companion is all you'll ever be
And so i ask
It's time you set me free
Set me free
