You captains

You captains, you warriors
You wonderful three
I often ask myself
Where would i be
Had i not known you
Not witnessed your power
Had i not seen you
Hold gentle a flower
Love e'er extended
To team and those fallen
Love e'er existing
I witnessed your calling
You captains, you generals
Your company led
Through courageous action
Through words that you said
When times overwhelming
Zapped us of will
You raised us upward
Led the charge up the hill
And so with heart heavy
I whisper goodbye
I dare not speak loudly
Less quickly i cry
And tell you three truly
I will remember forever
You captains, you warriors
And memories forever
