You'll never see

You'll never see
The struggle i go through
Trying to pretend
That i don't care about you
Trying to pretend
Your opinion leaves me cold
Trying to pretend
I don't care that i am old

You'll never see
The war i wage inside
Trying to seem strong
My heart breaking wide
Trying to seem strong
When i really want to crumble
Trying to seem strong
I could never be that humble

You'll never see
How dark it looks to me
Trying to ignore
The fact that i'm not free
Trying to ignore
The symphony in my brain
The one that holds me myself
In such lovely disdain

You'll never see
You'll never know
You'll never care
